1 I've sold quite a few really great daguerreotypes over the years, but this is one of my favorites. Large half plate depicting a political rally for Daniel Ullmann, the American (Know-Nothing) Party candidate for governor of NY in 1854. A large group of men have gathered in front of the Clinton House (located tentatively in Seneca Falls). Large poster with eagle & candidates names on front wall of the hotel, another being held over the second floor railing by a man behind the rail, & a third being carried (folded) by a man in the crowd. Condition generally excellent, a light wipe in lower left corner, a few scattered very minor scratches, minor halo of tarnish at extreme edges. Resealed but not cleaned. In somewhat worn leather case (not shown), no doubt original to the dag. Image size 4½ X 5½.

This image is believed to be the only known dag of a political rally, and as such is a remarkable documentation of rural political life in America.

This election was extremely close – the victor and runner up each got 33% of the vote, with only 300 votes separating them. Ullmann came in third with 26%. He later had a successful military career, leaving his practice at age 52 to raise a regiment for the Union cause. A year later he was promoted to Brigadier and sent to Louisiana to recruit colored troops. He commanded Ullmanns Brigade, USCT, Corps d'Afrique in the actions around Port Hudson. 20,000.

2 One of the great rarities in dark blue Staffordshire. 11½" platter "The Temple of Fame as introduced in a Print for the memory of Commodore Perry". In twenty years I have only seen this offered three times, and I think the third was the same piece as in the first offering. A duplicate from my own collection. Minor retouching to some small scratches, partially reglazed. No other damage or repairs, appearance is superb. 3,450.

3 Rare and desirable 8" creamware pitcher, portrait "James Maddison, President of the United States of America". Reverse with eagle, cannon, allegorical depiction of "Peace, Plenty and Independence". Federal eagle beneath spout. Overall appearance is perfect – there is some superb quality restoration to a couple of cracks on the reverse side (my china restorer does great work!) 8,500.

4 Exceedingly rare Mexican War recruiting broadside, Berkeley County Virginia Nov 26 1846. Custom framed 8 X 17. "Proclamation of Governor – Men of Virginia – voice of your country demanding aid in prosecution of just and righteous war – Federal govt called on Virginia for one Regiment...". Overall excellent bright condition, light folds possibly as issued. A couple minor edge tears at bottom center and bottom right (see thin lines on catalog photo for exact location). Neither touches the text. Mexican War recruiting broadsides are easily 100 times rarer than those from the Civil War. 4,500.

5 Superb 4½ creamware jug with pink luster trim. Slave in chains sits on rocky shore "Am Not I a Man and Brother", slave ship offshore, reverse poem "The Negro's Complaint", great sentiment. I know of two of these, and I own them both. 3,250.

6 Black on light pink with great slogan "Honest Old Abe". From the beardless print published by Mendel, Chicago. A few scattered minor light discolorations, overall excellent. 3,250.

7 Newspaper carriers addresses from the 1840-1880 period are often encountered. They were given away by street newsboys during the Christmas-New Years period as a way of soliciting holiday gratuities from their customers. I have never seen or heard of one from the Revolutionary War. Spectacular 8 X 10 circular from "the printers lad who carries the Pennsylvania Journal for the year 1777 (issued in 1776). Twelve verses of great patriotic content, George II was friend to Freeman, while George III is King of Slaves, comments on Lord North, Hessians, Trenton, Princeton, Mercer, Hazlet, Neale, Fleming, Shippen, etc, etc. America will be victorious and rule the waves, etc. Generally superb condition, minor touch of foxing not worth mentioning. 6,750.

8 Extremely rare large 4" bronze medal "copyright 1895 by H & J, Atlanta". Previously unpublished until I bought it last year at a NY auction (thanks Paul!) "Judge Us Not By the Splendid Caucasian Civilization – Judge Us Now in Comparison with the Depths from which We Have Come". At the time of Douglass' death 30 years after the Civil War, only a few blacks had made significant social advancement. Widespread equality was still decades away. Superb condition, no other example recorded. 1,775.

9 Everybody's favorite Al Smith celluloid, 1¼ RWB 3,950.

10 Classic Washington button "Long Live the President – GW". Grades about VF, no shank, an above average example. 1,300.

11 Washington button "March 4 1789 – Memorable Era". Dug example – surface a bit granular but shows good detail. No shank. Details VF, overall condition fine. 1,000.

12 A unique Civil War dog tag, obverse Lincoln portrait "Abraham Lincoln President – War of 1861". The reverse would typically be stamped with a soldiers name, unit and hometown. This one is stamped with the same period lettering as usual, but reads "Dennison Rust – Clams, Lobsters and Fish – Ipswich Mass". Nice XF, wear to original gilt. 850.

13 1840 Harrison log cabin brooch with cider barrel, and flying the "H & T" flag for Harrison and Tyler. Larger size, fancy frame, original pin, and in very pretty bright salmon pink color. Superb condition, and a rare type with the H & T flag. 2,000.

18 Phenomenal group of microphotograph viewers (stanhopes) depicting leaders of the woman suffrage crusade. Each is a 1½ X 3/8 heavy brass telescope with black wrap at center. Each subject is shown in an oval border, with her name and suffrage organization affiliation below. The ladies shown are American and British, including Eliz Cady Stanton, Susan B Anthony, Lucy Stone, Anna Howard Shaw, Carrie Chapman Catt, Flora Drummond (wearing a Votes for Women sash), Annie Kenney, Sylvia Pankhurst and Emmeline Pankhurst. All in excellent condition, one of the rarest suffrage artifacts you will find. 13,000.

19 Exceptional Calif gold rush rarity. Spanish 8 reales counterstamped "F D Kohler & Co – 1849 – San Francisco," all in a rectangular box. Kohler issued several different unique ingots as Calif State Assayer in 1850, but only three items are known using this prepared 1849 San Francisco die. A Peruvian doubloon was sold by Kagins about 10 years ago for $12,500. If I remember correctly, that piece was previously in the Clifford Sale in the early 1980's. Excellent condition (small rim nick at 7:00). 5,750.

20 Group of three presentation medals awarded to noted California watercolor artist L P Latimer. All are superb quality diestruck medals with engraved presentations. 3" bronze San Francisco Industrial Exhibition – Mechanics Institute – for landscape watercolor 1893. 1¾ silver Cal State Agricultural Society, Best Watercolors 1894, and a different style Cal Ag Soc in silver for watercolors 1902. Accompanied by various info on Latimer. 1,300.

succeeded Kohler & Co (see item 19 above) in May 1850, taking over their coining machinery and other equipment after Kohler was appointed state assayer in April. Virtually new condition, bright and lustrous, slabbed AU 50 by ANACS. 13,500.

23 Previously unseen 2" unglazed red clay pipe Robert E Lee. Name "LEE" impressed on one side of collar, 3 stars other side. Obviously made in a custom mold, so you have to wonder what happened to the others in the past 140 years. Excellent 500.

SPECIAL NOTE – to those readers not familiar with my catalogs it might seem that I use the terms "rare" or "extremely rare" much too often. Let me assure you that is not the case. Virtually everything in my catalogs is purchased by me one item at a time. You won't find other dealers leftovers or stuff taken from auction box lots. After 25 years I know what is rare and what isn't, and I constantly seek out unusual items. I would rather have a $200 item that nobody has seen before than a $500 piece that shows up regularly. I would also rather spend $10,000 for something truly exceptional to offer you than to spend $3,000 on a well known or frequently seen item.

233 2¼ clear barrel bottle "Tippecanoe Extract/ Hard Cider". 675.

234 Classic 3½ Century Tobacco tin (red & black colors will probably look solid black in catalog). Underside of lid has revolving disc with portraits Garfield-Arthur-Hancock-English, visible through oval window. The Hancock is quite nice with just a couple tiny chips. The other 3 portraits are ruined. With Hancock as shown it displays beautifully. A nice one would cost $1,500-2,000, and you still couldn't play with it for fear of destroying portraits! This is very reasonable at 450.

235 Unique painted silk 21" ladies cape showing the Harrison log cabin in brown/blk/gray, flying two RWB US flags. Trees & grass in blue/green/brown. Scallop gathered edges, border of tiny black buttons with gilt centers. Basically superb condition except the two thin silk ribbon ties are gone from upper corners. 246 Rare 3½ cutout brass hanging badge with red silk liner and matching pinback bow. Cleveland Aide-March 4 1893. I owned an identical one about 15 years ago, and I've seen another with blue silk instead of red. Probably only a couple dozen were ever made. 950.

263 1¼ blk/yellow sticker on small card. Bit of foxing on card, sticker perfect. What a great design this would have been for a cello. 45.

264 Rare 7" badge "Nat Assn of Dem Clubs", 1¾ glass jugate similar to ambrotype. Minor lamination seen when tipped to light, generally excellent but for tiny spear point missing at left. A classic! 1,100.

265 Rare stereo card version of the well known but always popular composite photo Lincoln, Hamlin and Congressmen who voted for abolition of slavery. 375.

The old woman's face is decorated like a clown, and she holds umbrella. Realistic shoulders/torso instead of bell form. Pristine 1,200.

301 Large 36" (doubled over) sash crimson/wht/green for Knights of White Camelia, a KKK group. Now that the politically correct jerk offs who run Ebay intend to ban KKK items, you will no doubt see more material in catalogs and mail auctions. In the long run this will be good for the collector anyway, since a high percentage of the Klan stuff on Ebay was fake anyway. 125.

302 Most unusual gold headed cane (likely gold plated). Deeply carved filigree work surrounds oval panel engraved "Jas H Wall from the Anarchists, June 23 1897". 850.

Folded, otherwise excellent 850.

323 Outstanding blk/beige print 11 X 14, "I'm Not to Blame for Being White Sir" says poor little white girl as well dressed man (believed to be Charles Sumner) bypasses her while giving coins to black child. He explains that shes much better off because she isn't oppressed. This would have been popular abolitionist thought when the print was made prior to the Civil War, as well as during the civil rights era of the 1960's-80's. Today many would see opposite meaning in light of the oppressive liberal political correctness of recent years. Marginal losses completely hidden by mat, fine. 500.

In 1959 a large percentage of the Cuban population believed this idealogical Marxist crap. By the end of the next decade they realized too late that they were a nation of slaves. 354 Small silver mirror 4 X 5, RWB silhouette MacArthur on silver background 85.

355 9" pressed glass handled serving dish with portrait Jeff Davis. In American Historical Glass Lindsey inexplicably attributes this to John Coulter Bates, a minor Spanish American War figure, though she does say that many people believe it is Jeff Davis. The Davis attribution is obvious – I don't know what Lindsey was thinking. Also the piece dates from the 1880's, well before the Spanish American era. 150.

360 This should have gone in the aviation section. 1927 typed letter signed, on Oyster Bay letterhead, from Theodore Roosevelt Jr. saying that he has no intention of riding Lindberghs coattails, never wants anyone to say "that I used a national hero to advertise myself". Also disavows third term gossip about Coolidge. His own political aspirations ended with defeat in the NY gubernatorial race, but he achieved everlasting fame & a posthumous Medal of Honor on the beaches of Normandy. A neat letter. 350.

361 Beadles 1864 Life of Lincoln by OJ Victor, 96 pages, with added 4 page black bordered memorial prefix. Back cover missing, some foxing and corner wear. 275.

VOLUNTEERS FOR MEXICO.

A meeting of all persons disposed to respond to the Proclamation of the Governor of Virginia, is requested at the Court House on FRIDAY EVENING next, 27th inst., at 7 o'clock.

Men of Virginia! Citizens of Berkeley County! Let it not be said that you have exhibited backwardness when the voice of your Country is ringing in your ears, demanding your aid in the prosecution of a just and righteous war. The Federal Government has called upon Virginia for one Regiment. The Chief Magistrate of the State has issued his Proclamation calling upon the noble spirits of the Commonwealth to enroll themselves in that Regiment. Can it be that Berkeley will prove recreant to such a call?

Several Speeches may be expected.

November 26, 1846.

JEMMY THE BATTLER.
JAMES MADISON, by Jove, Jim,
I wonder what you mean,
You proclaimin, in chair of State,
A victim, or a dream?
The war you did begin, Jim,
And why did you do so,
You should have found somebetter ground,
James Madison, by joe.
James Madison, by Jove, Jim,
We find your plans have rain'd,
For this, you know,
That deadly woe and hates we've entail'd,
Upon this happy land Jim,
You've brought disgrace also,
That you can't cure, nor we endure,
James Madison, by joe.
James Madison, by Jove, Jim,
'Twas where you first began,
The world did say, well might they,
That you was not the man,
You was the cape of France, Jim,
And Jefferson also,
With goodness fear, he'd Britons beat,
James Madison, by joe.
Our Capitol you've lost, Jim,
Much wrath with it, likewise,
Your force is fled, your treasure's dead,
Your credit's no where,
In wisdom you're ill-fetted,
In energy also.
Your country did vanish away,
James Madison, by joe.
James Madison, by Jove, Jim,
You ought to go to Bath with speed,
With your grannie, you know not where
You throw your funk and steal
When Britons come down landing
On us in mid of winter,
You was at a loss,
James Madison, by joe.
I last would advise you, Jim,
Where you most resort to,
In your's moment of distress,
At Granny's Cassery Inn,
Where you may at once join Jim,
Like wise your friend, Nicholas,
Free born Scarron and Grey's sister,
James Madison, by joe.
The Minister of Arts, Jim,
You first lay in stile,
Where sadden joy, please she say,
Boyfriend you a cellar,
But now the tides retires Jim,
And no might you seen,
Then Rome great, shall guide thee,
James Madison by joe.
James Madison by joe, Jim,
No longer as President,
You've bowed all at Boby's feet,
Our Leader for to be,
Great Rome shall supplant you,
And he shall rule in stile,
Where you are I am, God save you,
Our little PEACEMAKER.
James Madison by Jove Jim
Where Bony meets you there,
With open hand and sword drawn,
How knowing where to stare,
He counter your trade, Jim,
Tall well I warrant does know,
It was all by thewein you then,
NAPOLEON & Co.
